BOY SCOUTS FIGHT FIRE

Jasper, March 5.—On Sunday night, March 3, the Boy Scouts of Troop No. 1, of Jasper, were notified that two of their brother scouts were battling with forest fire, trying to save their fence and orchard. Being Boy Scouts and always prepared they immediately responded after the Christian Endeavor meeting. They formed a line for their march, and in 20 minutes were on the firing line.

The fire had almost surrounded the orchard, making the line of fire about one mile long. They took for their weapons pine brush and forked sticks, and with an inspiration like that of our soldiers in France, they cheerfully met their foe. Sometimes it was seemingly almost impossible to put down those high leaping and roaring flames, but bravely the fight went on.

After extinguishing the fire around the orchard, it was decided by the boys that the continued line over the mountain by summertown and down into Pryor Cove Valley, should also be extinguished. A new supply of weapons were brought on and the fight was resumed. After five hours of struggling about a five mile line of fire was totally extinguished, and the tired but cheerful boys returned to their homes.

Thanks His Friends.

K. D. Curtis, who received nomination for re-election as Registrar of Marion County Saturday on the Republican ticket is deeply grateful to his many friends for the same, and greatly appreciates the splendid vote given him. It was an endorsement of the work of his office which was a rouser. He hopes to have the full vote of his party in August for reelection to the office, which he will faithfully fill to the best of his ability.

To Open New Business.

Frank W. Brewer of this place, is preparing to go into the general mercantile business at Tatesville, where he has purchased a location. He will build a store building and hopes to be ready for business about April 1. It is said there will be about fifteen hundred miners at work there before long.

Herman Martin Ring.

The eight-months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ring, of Winchester, died last week after a short illness. Mrs. Ring was formerly Miss Henrie Martin of this place, and her many friends here regret to learn of the death of her baby.

T. A. Randle of Chattanooga, was here Sunday, coming to see his mother, Mrs. Mary Randle, whose illness took a sudden turn for the worse Saturday.

Better Farming in the South

Will The American Farmer Kill The Kaiser's Wolf—Famine

Chas. A. Whittle, Editorial Manager, Farm Service Bureau, Atlanta, Ga. The farmer can win this war. Only by famine does the Kaiser hope to conquer—famine by force of the submarine. If the submarine brings England and France to their knees, begging bread in the humiliation of defeat, the Kaiser will then turn upon the United States.

England and France can be saved from famine by the farmers of the United States and Canada in spite of the submarine, if they will. The submarine will sink food that England and France so sorely needs but the submarine can not sink enough to starve our allies, if the farmer of the United States will raise maximum crops, raise every pound and save every pound of foods he possibly can.

It's a fight, therefore, between the farmer of the United States on the one hand and the gaunt wolf of the Kaiser, famine, on the other hand.

If the American farmer can raise enough to allow for the submarine toll and enough more food to place "over there" to feed those who are fighting, then victory is ours.

But it's a narrow margin! The whole world is on the verge of starvation. If even a normal crop is produced in this country it is not going to afford enough to feed everybody.

dependent upon this country, a full ration. At best there is going to be lack. The American farmer must awaken to a serious realization that this is no small task, in fact, it is only a fighting chance.

If the American farmer will only realize this, then he must recognize that every blow he makes must count for the utmost. Maximum yields must be striven for as never before.

This is no time to leave anything unemphasized that will count for greater yields. Efficiency must operate with every act on the farm from breaking the soil deeply to garnering the crops with a saving hand.

Thorough preparation of the seed bed may be accomplished with less labor than is customary, by the use of labor saving farm machinery.

Liberal and rational applications of plant food should be made this year.

Farmers who never used commercial fertilizers before should certainly do so now for the nation's sake.

The same modern, labor saving farm machinery that will enable a farm hand to plow two rows while plowing one heretofore—and plow them better—must be made use of.

It's a hard fight all spring, summer and fall for the American farmer. Will he win?

Nice Mention.

We notice in the Marion county papers where Hon. Leslie R. Darr has announced his intentions to make the race for state Senator subject to the action of the Democratic party. As this is Marion county's time to have a state Senator, we don't think they could choose a better representative than Leslie R. Darr, as he is a true bline Democrat, besides being loved by the entire citizenship of Marion county for his good qualities. We are for you, Leslie, tooth and toe nail.—Mrs. Grundy, Tracy City.

Mrs. Sarah Brown.

Interment of the body of Mrs. Sarah Brown, who died near Scottsboro, Ala., Wednesday, was made at the Lasater graveyard Friday morning. She leaves two sons, Newton Brown, of near Scottsboro, and Manuel Brown, and one daughter, Mrs. Susie Russell, both of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner Coppinger and family visited relatives in Sweedens Cove this week.

ROOKIE WRITES A LETTER TO MA

Kamp Johnsting, Florida, Feb. 16, 1918. Dear Ma: Well Ma here comes that letter that I told you last week I would write and Ma believe me it shore is a job to write a letter cause I dont have much time for writin. Somehow Ma it seems that these here fellers with their "HDQ Guard" writ on their arms seems to think a whole lot of me. The other day I decided that I wanted to go to Jacksonville and spend Sunday and so I dolled up in my new sute of clothes and borrowed a pair of them leather leggins what the officers wear and started out for town. I also found a kind of yellor hat what looked better than the one what I was a wearing so I put that on and found myself a piece of tin like these officers wear and put it on my kollar. Well I got to the gate and here was one of them "HQQ" fellers er standin in the road. He stopped the big buss, what Ma is bigger than our hay waggon when it has got a big pile of hay on it, and he looked us all over. When he spied me he said as how I wasnt dressed properly and told me to get out of the car. I told him I wasnt goin to do it cause I was goin to Jacksonville but he low as to how I wasnt goin. Well I started argu with him but he had one of them sticks in his hand and so I got out and Ma there I was all dressed up and no place to go. Ma he made me set down there at the gate and sent for a big autermobile what belongs to Mr. Q. M. C. and they put me in it and instead of sendin me to town they sent me back to that guard house and locked me up for persona in an officer. I dont know how I done anything like that but they said I had and they aint let me say nothin until yet. After a while a little lutenent name Balderwin come over to me and asked me what I was a doin there again and I told him twarnt none of his business. Well Ma that started another argument cause that feller thought I was er sassin him. Ma he balled me up one side, down the other and back through the middle and then pulled that piece of tin off my shoulders and them leggins off me and told them to let me go back to my quarters. Well I went back and got my other cloths and went over to the dock to ketch a boat to town. I finally got there but Ma I show had a hard time to get there. But I will tell you about that boat ride next week. I got to be mess guard tonight and so I had better start stirrin them oats before Mr. Mess Sergeant gets after me. Tell Pa and the chilluns hello for me and write me a letter soon.

Yore Son,
A. ROOKIE
